100% of Programs Reported Increases in Demand for Services

As communities continue to experience job loss and decreased community resources, 100% of programs reported a rise in demand for services, while at the same time 67% of programs reported a decrease in funding.

1 Unmet Requests for Services

Many programs reported a critical shortage of funds and staff to assist victims in need of services, such as emergency shelter, housing, transportation, childcare, and legal representation.

In addition to not enough beds or money for hotel and limited staffing, programs indicated that limited funding for programs and services, a lack of specialized services, and limited accessibility, such as translators, bilingual staff, or accessible equipment for people who have disabilities were reasons they couldn't meet requests for services.

At times there are service gaps for women and children who have had to flee their homes because of domestic violence. For some women, upon exit from shelter they are left with no place to go and cannot afford accommodations on their own. Women and families who do not qualify for the transitional housing program require our assistance. In addition, the lack of adequate or reliable public transportation also impacts survivor's access to other services.

"Domestic violence doesn't stop because times are tough. It doesn't matter to victims if the government is broke because they live with 'broke' every day—broken lives, broken hearts, and broken dreams. Survivors who knock on our door or ring our hotline don't ask for much. They come to us, stripped of everything, and all they ask for is safety, hope, and understanding. We can't ignore domestic violence any more. We must take a stand against domestic violence and make it a priority in our nation."

El 15 de septiembre de 2010, 13 de los 13, ó 100% de los programas de violencia doméstica identificados en Puerto Rico participaron del Censo Nacional de Servicios de Violencia Doméstica 2010.

303 Víctimas en Un Solo Día

114 víctimas de violencia doméstica encontraron refugio en los albergues de emergencia o viviendas transitorias provistas por los programas locales de violencia doméstica.

189 niños y adultos recibieron servicios no residenciales, incluyendo consejería individual, intercesión legal y grupos de apoyo para niños.

Este gráfico expone el porcentaje de los programas que proveyeron los siguientes servicios en el Día del Censo:

Services Provided by Local Programs:	Sept. 15
Apoyo Individual e Intercesión	100%
Albergue de Emergencia (incluido los hoteles y casas de refugios)	77%
Transportación	54%
Grupo de Apoyo/Intercesión	38%
Servicios Legales/Acompañamiento	31%
Vivienda Transitoria	23%
Representación Legal por un Abogado	23%
Servicios Médicos/Acompañamiento	15%

46 Llamadas a la Línea de Emergencia

Las líneas de emergencia de violencia doméstica son salvaguardas de vida para víctimas en peligro ofreciéndoles apoyo, información, planificación de seguridad y recursos. Durante el periodo de 24 horas del censo, los programas de violencia doméstica contestaron más de 2 llamadas cada hora.

11 Solicitudes de Ayuda No Atendidas

Muchos programas informaron una escasez crítica de fondos y de personal para poder asistir a las víctimas que necesitaban servicios tales como transportación, traducción, cuidado de niñas y niños, consejería de salud mental y abuso de sustancias, y representación legal. 4 de estas necesidades no atendidas fueron solicitudes de víctimas que buscaban albergue de emergencia o vivienda transitoria.

Razones porque no pudieron proveer servicios:

- 31% reported insuficientes fondos para programas y servicios necesitados.
- 31% reported insuficientes empleados.
- 23% reported insuficientes servicios especializados.
- 8% reported no disponibles camas o fondos para hoteles.
- 8% reported fondos limitados para traductores, empleados bilingües, o equipo accesible.

85% de los Programas informan de un aumento de la demanda por servicios

Mientras las comunidades siguen sufriendo la pérdida de empleos y la disminución de recursos comunitarios, 85% de los programas reportaron un aumento en la demanda por servicios, mientras que el 69% de los programas informaron que fondos están disminuyendo.
